SUBJECT: Candidates for the Proposed China Differential

DOC Declassification/Release Instructions on File

Attached are candidates for the proposed China Differential. They should be considered only as first approximations, being derived by our technicians primarily from previous international embargo lists.

We would appreciate greatly your review of the list. As I indicated to you, such a list to be of maximum utility in the negotiating sessions ahead should be ordered. Because of the limited time available, however, you may not be able to order the entire list. In such event, ordering by broader categories would be helpful, though admittedly less desirable.

As you know, our technicians are not skilled in nuclear weaponry or in the technology of the various kinds and sizes of missiles. That there may be some key items missing from our list of candidates is, therefore, quite likely. If you believe there are other items that should be added to the list, please identify and add them in the appropriate place.

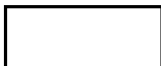

Because of our tight time schedule, we would like to begin discussions on the list in about a week. I will call you or whomever you designate as to the date, time, and place of the meeting.
